

HIDDEN RAFTS
Embedding objects
in fence, pavement, walls, etc.
with donor names

SEATWALL GATHERING SPACE
uses 25 for small groups, informal play grass behind wall can edge up to top of wall food service in pavement with interpretive signage double decker hamburger ice cream from shop where interurban tickets were sold bananas first seen at Big Four reunion

SOLID 4' FENCE
to buffer neighbors
introduce hidden raft

OIL DERRICKS
garden elements as typology
with 1' masts
with low maintenance
planting

MAZE

OIL DERRICKS
garden elements as typology
with 1' masts
with low maintenance
planting

PLANTED BUFFER

INDIAN ART IN SIDEWALK
with interpretive signage
to explain main street use as Indian trail in 1782

BROOKCROFT
fun with numbers
e.g., 1 room in the 1st schoolhouse
2 games in a Double Decker
4 families in the Big Four

BRONZE LIFELONG LEARNING STATUE

REDUCE ASPHALT
introduce lawn to
separate park from street

ACCESSIBLE PEDESTRIAN PATH to connect from parking to shelter house

FENCE
to keep children
from straying to street
introduce hidden raft

RELOCATE PARALLEL BARS

SIDEWALKS
provide edge for play surface

RELOCATE WALL PLAY AND PLAY PHONE

SHUTTER HOUSE
active play
symbol of future
success stories displayed architectural elements of original schoolhouse
"shutter" front for movie screen

SUCCESS STORIES
examples of stories to post in
shelter house

ORIGINAL SCHOOLHOUSE
architectural elements for shelter house

OPEN LAWN
active play
view movies on shelter house

TRAINTRACKS
in sidewalk, with hidden crane and
interpretive
train signage

CRIDERSVILLE
interpretive signage explaining original 24 GCS field
play the Criders in 1856

PARK ENTRY GATE
use salvaged bricks and stone pieces from old school building
"teach" visitors are guests to introduce idea of lifelong learning

SPLASH PLAY
17' 8" deep of fire area
with interpretive signage
water cannons for fighting fire seawalls built into ramp
shade over seating

REDUCE ASPHALT
introduce lawn to
separate park from street

TRAIN DEPOT

1" = 1'-0" north

LEGACY PARK SITE CONCEPT

04.23.12